

Guidelines for the submission of abstracts

- The abstracts are to be written in English.
- When formulating your contribution, please pay attention to correct orthography, grammar and gender-sensitive as well as diversity-sensitive language. The contributions will be published as submitted; there is no proofreading. After submission, contributions can be edited until the end of the abstract submission.
- The length of the abstract is limited to 1.250 characters (incl. spaces; excl. references), the length of the title to 250 characters (incl. spaces).
- Use only common abbreviations. If you use your own abbreviations, they must be written out in full the first time they are used. Duden-compliant abbreviations do not need to be introduced separately (such as).
- If possible, please structure the abstract as follows: Introduction, Methods, Results, Conclusion
- You can add up to 3 keywords to your abstract.
- You cannot upload any figures/images to your abstract.
- The decision on acceptance/rejection of an abstract and the classification in the programme is made by the scientific committee on the basis of the review results.
- All submitted abstracts will be presented as a poster in A0 format, portrait. Each presenter will give a short introduction of the poster orally in the poster session with one slide. Further instructions will follow after acceptance of the abstract by the Scientific Committee.
- The authorship will be informed in mid-July 2023. Organizational details will be communicated directly to the authors.
- To present your paper, you must register for the congress and pay the registration fee in due time. You will find the online registration on the congress website.

Publication Guidelines

The submitter declares that all named authors agree to be named including their respective affiliation in connection with this abstract.

The accepted abstracts are intended for publication in the online program of the event. By submitting the abstract, the authors give their consent to the publication of the contribution.

All accepted abstracts will be published on the conference website (<https://espg2023.org/>).
